Its fascinating history, beautiful position on the Hunter River and a diverse range of boutiques, cafes, galleries and scenery make Morpeth a popular escape. Enjoy lunch in the Servants Quarters Teahouse at Campbell's Store. So much to see and do after lunch. Galleries, bonded stores, Morpeth Gallery, fudge tasting, ginger beer and honey tasting. Morpeth's days as a river port were effectively over by about 1890, but the town's comparative isolation meant that its historic shopfronts, wharves and even the hitching posts along the main street have survived.
